

MISSION

- To encourage, motivate and elect qualified candidates for local public offices, focusing on the underrepresentation of women
- To promote the appointment of women to public policy boards and commissions
- To give women candidates information that will help them campaign successfully for public office
- To raise public awareness of the unique contributions women make to political discourse and action

Nine in 15 is a nonpartisan grassroots initiative, not a formal organization. We do not endorse or fund candidates. For more information, to volunteer or to be added to our mailing list, please write Ninein15@gmail.com.
